

open dialogue

uk

A four year journey

Nick Putman

Values

There is meaning in so called madness

Psychotic experiences make more sense when understood in context

Psychosis is an active response to stressful life events

Phenomenological approach - focus on the lived experience

Volkmar Aderhold

"Psychiatry itself is a battleground, and a bad one,
and I hope we can change that"

Meeting space

The team

Nick Putman

Monica Cabello

Paul Ekwuruke

Rachel Waddingham

Tuesdays to Fridays in Dalston and home visits

Team will be expanding with independent practitioners from Foundation Training

Individual work as well as network meetings

Plans to develop subsidised work

Current Work

First full training programme now in its second year

Increased capacity for therapeutic work at new premises

Foundation Training starting in June

led by Volkmar Aderhold, Petra Hohn, Mia Kurtti & Nick Putman

Full-time administrator

Future Plans

Next Full Training in 2017

Seminars and Conferences - Mad in America

Qualitative research using video material

Centre for Training, Practice & Research

Charity Status

Funding family work and training

Applying for grants - Contracts with Trusts?

open dialogue

uk

A four year journey

Nick Putman

